

THE QUINN LAW FIRM INTRODUCES THREE NEW ASSOCIATE ATTORNEYS.

The Quinn Law Firm is pleased to announce Heather A. Harrington, Caitlyn M. Haener, and Seth M. Trott have joined the firm as their newest associate attorneys.

Attorney Harrington practiced law in Blair County, Pennsylvania for 20 years with the firm of McIntyre, Hartye, Schmitt & Sosnowski. Her focus was personal injury insurance defense litigation in medical malpractice, auto law, premises law, and Worker's Compensation. She also worked on insurance coverage cases and subrogation matters and taught classes as part of Penn State Altoona's Paralegal curriculum.

In 2010 Attorney Harrington joined her family business and became an approved McDonald's franchisee. During this time, she continued her legal training through required seminars, switching the focus to employment law matters. She also represented her company in Unemployment Claims. After joining the Quinn Firm, she is now focusing on education law but continuing to be involved in litigation and appeal matters.

Attorney Haener received her Bachelor of Arts, Accounting degree from Mercyhurst University in 2015. She was awarded the Certificate of Excellence from the Walker School of Business & Communication during her undergraduate studies. Attorney Haener received her Juris Doctor from the Mitchell Hamline School of Law in 2023, where she was ranked in the Top 5% of her class. She also served as Production Editor on the Journal of Public Policy & Practice. Attorney Haener's practice will concentrate on estate planning, estate administration, and trust administration.

Attorney Trott is a member of the Litigation Division whose practice focuses on civil and commercial litigation, business law, and municipal matters. He received his Bachelor of Science, Business and Advertising degree in 2015, Bachelor of Business Administration, Finance degree in 2016, both from Gannon University. He received his Juris Doctor from The Pennsylvania State University, Dickinson Law School in 2023, where he served as Editor-in-Chief of the Dickinson Law Review.

Prior to his career in law, Attorney Trott formed an energy technology start-up and held a fellowship with a regional think tank. He frequently speaks and writes on topics pertaining to emerging technologies, economic development, and poverty. Outside of his practice he volunteers his time to assist with various community and economic development efforts, as well as regional civic and political affairs.
